

Supper at Simon's

Luke 7:36-50

This meal reveals the judgments we form about each other.

📖 Luke 7:36–38 (NIV84): “Now one of the Pharisees invited Jesus to have dinner with Him, so He went to the Pharisee’s house and reclined at the table. <sup>37</sup> When a woman who had lived a sinful life in that town learned that Jesus was eating at the Pharisee’s house, she brought an alabaster jar of perfume, <sup>38</sup> and as she stood behind Him at His feet weeping, she began to wet His feet with her tears. Then she wiped them with her hair, kissed them and poured perfume on them.”

📖 Proverbs 7:16–17 (NIV84): “I have covered my bed with colored linens from Egypt. <sup>17</sup> I have perfumed my bed with myrrh, aloes, and cinnamon.”

📖 Luke 7:39 (NIV84) “When the Pharisee who had invited Him saw this, he said to himself, “If this man were a prophet, He would know who is touching Him and what kind of woman she is—that she is a sinner.”

This meal reveals the ways we treat each other.

📖 Luke 7:40–43 (NIV84) “Jesus answered him, “Simon, I have something to tell you.” “Tell me, teacher,” he said. <sup>41</sup> “Two men owed money to a certain moneylender. One owed him five hundred denarii, and the other fifty. <sup>42</sup> Neither of them had the money to pay him back, so he canceled the debts of both. Now which of them will love him more?” <sup>43</sup> Simon replied, “I suppose the one who had the bigger debt canceled.” “You have judged correctly,” Jesus said.”

📖 Luke 7:44–50 (NIV84) “Then He turned toward the woman and said to Simon, “Do you see this woman? I came into your house. You did not give me any water for my feet, but she wet my feet with her tears and wiped them with her hair. <sup>45</sup> You did not give me a kiss, but this woman, from the time I entered, has not stopped kissing my feet. <sup>46</sup> You did not put oil on my head, but she has poured perfume on my feet. <sup>47</sup> Therefore, I tell you, her many sins have been forgiven—for she loved much. But he who has been forgiven little loves little.” <sup>48</sup> Then Jesus said to her, “Your sins are forgiven. <sup>49</sup> The other guests began to say among themselves, “Who is this who even forgives sins?” <sup>50</sup> Jesus said to the woman, “Your faith has saved you; go in peace.”

Digging Deeper: Have you ever judged someone only to regret it later? The woman in the story appears to understand the gravity of her sin and the full extent of Christ’s forgiveness. When was the last time you truly appreciated the totality of what Jesus did for you? When did you last feel overwhelmed by God’s grace? What “leftovers” from this meal are you taking with you today?
